

- 1) Where do you live?
I live in Ireland, in the 'sunny south east'.
- 2) When did you start dancing and how did that happen?
I started dancing when I was just 3. Irish dance, Ballet, jazz and majorettes!
I couldn't get enough...
I went to dance college in Dublin, and then on to Broadway Dance centre in New York.
- 3) What is the first dance you ever learnt?
I really can't remember the first line dance I ever learned but I remember learning a dance to 'Itsy Bitsy Teeny Weeny Yellow Polka Dot Bikini' when I was only about 5!
- 4) Where is the most unusual place you have ever line danced?
Haha this question is funny. If there's music, I'm dancing!! So sometimes it's in Tesco, i dance a lot in random fields!! And I once did black coffee looking down on the Grand Canyon...
- 5) Does anyone else in your family have the line dancing bug? If so, who?
Yes!! My mother is also a line dance teacher. We teach some classes together. Also, my aunt, Betty is a line dancer. You rarely see one of us without the other two
- 6) What made you decide to choreograph, and what was your first dance?
I've choreographed loads of dances that I've never put on paper so I can't really remember the first. I do remember doing a cool one to Switch by Will Smith in 2005.
- 7) What does line dance mean to you?
Everything. I really love it. I love all of my dancers and line dance friends all over the world. It's the best!!!

- 8) Describe yourself in 1 sentence.
Unable to have a conversation if there's music on in the background, #dance.
- 9) What does everyone need to know about you?
I bake cakes. I love that. I'm a huge hurling fan (that's Ireland's national sport). And I love my two big dogs very much :)
- 10) Do you have any advice or tips for anyone wanting to choreograph?
Listen to the music and do what you feel is right. Once you like it, that's good enough. Then if anyone else enjoys it, that's a bonus.
