

- 1) Where do you live?
I live in the San Francisco Bay Area in California, USA.
- 2) When did you start dancing and how did that happen?
I was first introduced to line dancing in the early 1990's at a local country western bar. My friends and I went there for happy hour and saw that they were giving free line dancing lessons. We all got on the floor and gave it a try. I learned my very first line dance there.
- 3) What is the first dance you ever learnt?
The Tush Push. Even though it was a challenge, I never had so much fun clapping, hopping and rolling my hip to a song. I was instantly hooked!
- 4) Where is the most unusual place you have ever line danced?
In a swimming pool. I was actually working on a choreography. LOL
- 5) Does anyone else in your family have the line dancing bug? If so, who?
My daughter Nicole has actually choreographed a dance with me in November 2012 called Got Me Good. There's a great YouTube video of us dancing it together.
- 6) What made you decide to choreograph, and what was your first dance?
I began choreographing at the end of 2010 at the encouragement of a good friend. We were supposed to choreograph a dance together that holiday season. However, she caught a bad cold and was not able to work with me. As a result, I ended up finishing the dance (Innocent) on my own and released it in January of 2011 at the Palm Springs Line Dance Festival.
- 7) What does line dance mean to you?
What began as a casual hobby has evolved into an integral part of my life. Line dance has allowed me to express myself in many different ways and connected me to amazing people all over the world.

- 8) Describe yourself in 1 sentence.
I'm a lucky woman with a loving family who has found her passion in line dance.
- 9) What does everyone need to know about you?
I love chocolate, good wine, hiking in nature and long walks along the beach.
- 10) Do you have any advice or tips for anyone wanting to choreograph?
Go do it! Start with a song that you absolutely love and dance like no one is watching
